

IDIOMS RELATED TO BODY LANGUAGE

www.englishlesson.com

TO HAVE A FINGER IN EVERY PIE

– to be involved in a large and varied number of activities or enterprises.

LOOK A GIFT HORSE IN THE MOUTH

- to look in a critical way
at something that has been given to one.

TO BE HEAD OVER HEELS IN LOVE

- to be completely or deeply in love or infatuated with someone.

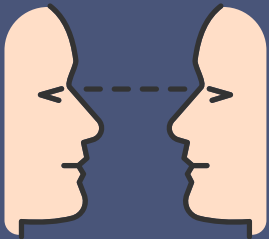

TO PULL SOMEONE'S LEG

– to trick or lie to someone in a playful way.

TO SEE EYE TO EYE

- to agree with someone
and have the same
opinions and views.

NOT TO PUT A FOOT WRONG

- to never make any mistakes.

